"vegan", "selftext": "I love watching vegan (and non-vegan) recipe youtubers to learn to make better plant based meals. We all know the same top (awesome) youtubers teaching us to make better meals like Derek Sarno, Rainbow Plant Life. Hermann (Julius Felder), Sauce Stache (Mark Stache), Korean Vegan, Avant Garde Vegan (Gaz Oakly)\\[For those not boycotting him now\\], Yeung Man Cooking, etc... they all have 500k+ subscribers.\n\nI want to share with you all a list of some of my favourite underrated vegan recipe youtubers and Id love to hear some of your favourites that I don't know about. They all have less than 100K subscribers (and in some case way less) and they deserve way more so that they can continue to make videos to teach us to make better food so that we can impress the non-vegans in our lives with how great Plant Based food can be! So here's my life.\n\n1. My Vegan Provence: This guy is amazing! He has so few followers and barely anyone watches his content and it doesnt make sense to me. He is from Provence but living somewhere in China (I think hes an actor there). He veganizes all of his favourite Proven\u00e7al dishes. You def need to check him out, he works so hard on his content and no one watches it! :(I don't want him to give up.\n2. My Plant Cake: She is amazing if you want to learn how to make the most amazing wholefoods plant-based desserts. She;s Ukrainian living in Spain (Or Portugal?) and makes the cutest enlish misprounciation mistakes :P Out of this world recipes and techniques. I think she's better than Gretchen! She also sells cooking classes because she is really an amazing niche chef in healthy plant based desserts.\n3. Fraser Cooks: \"The worlds nicest chef\". A super chill fellow Canadian chef teaching great recipes and techniques.\n4. Veggie Anh: Amazing veganized Vietnamese recipes.\n5. Wendy the Food Scientist: She is a food scientist who studies and experiments on how to make the best tofu, seitan, and other recipes. She does most Shorts to promote (tease) buying her books and masterclasses, but you can still learn from just these teasers. I bought her tofu ebook and it was worth it! Im considering getting her Seitan masterclass now.\n6. Bold Flavor Vegan: He's great for his ham recipes and other seitan meat creations. For those who miss ribs, bacon and hot dogs, check him out! Especially now that Sauce Stache has kinda moved onto his new weight loss and health content.\n7. Tasty Thrifty Timely: Another fellow Canadian super cute couple teaching how to make tasty cheap and easy recipes. For those of you with families to feed or on a budget, check her out! I think she is also an ex-actor\n8. Earthy Goodness Kitchen: I think he's quite new and this is why he doesnt have many subscribers yet. He's a chef from somewhere in the UK who teach great wholefoods plant-based recipes and techniques. Seems like a really nice guy too...I think he and Fraser would be good friends.\n9. A Japanese Vegan's Kitchen CH: This guy I think must be in Japan somewhere. He doesnt talk in his videos (or at least the ones Ive seen). If you've ever wanted to learn to make vegan seafood, hes the guy! If you can gt your hands on some Konjac powder, his recipes for shrimp and calamari and awesome! He is also likely a food scientist given the way he talks about his different experiments.\n10. Miyoko Schinner: You probably all know her from the famous Miyoko's creamery saga... but for some reason she doesn't have many subscribers. And my college requires I get a meal plan to eat at the dining hall. Many times I tryed getting plant based foods instead of the meat. And the people behind the counter have asked many times I was asked if it was ok that the \u201cmeat\u201d was vegan meat and while I will not show them any disrespect, sometimes I fell like saying \u201c the reason I\u2019m eating this is because it\u2019s vegan meat \u201c it\u2019s anoying that people assume I would be not ok eating vegan meat.
\nEdit: I forgot to put but there are sighs explaining the foods they offer and it is very clear what stuff is vegan, vegetarian and plant based,which is how I pick out what I\u2019m eating so it\u2019s very clear and it\u2019s usually the same few people so I\u2019ve had to say it a few times to the same people.\n<!-- SC_ON -->", "likes": null, "suggested_sort": null, "banned_at_utc": null, "view_count": null, "archived": false, "no_follow": false, "is_crosspostable": true, "pinned": false, "over_18": false, "all_awardings": [], "awarders": [], "media_only": false, "link_flair_template_id": "93c0fe64-

I never noticed any change as a teenager... but, within six months of being vegan I started notice smells and it got weird.\n\nFirst, I started noticing this weird dank smell like wet hot dogs and I thought it was just somebody who needed a shower then I realized I was smelling it everywhere and I'm pretty confident I was smelling the actual skin smell of people and I could smell it immediately when they entered the room from around 40 feet away. There was that dank hot dog smell and then some people fully smelled like chicken or beef or whatever meat they were eating.\n\nNow, I guess my nose has become desensitized to the smell and I only notice when someone wears perfume containing oakmoss and that dank hot dog blasts me 'til we part.\n\nNow, I'm noticing the smell of blood in the air. This one really puts me off and makes me question how the hell I ever imagined the smell of cooking meat to be desirable. I went into a bar the other day and the air was dense, thick with the smell of blood. I imagine they were cooking hamburgers or something. It smelled like a death cult or something and the smell was everywhere, I couldn't get away from it. When I'm walking around my city, I can smell it in the streets sometimes and it's not a little bit - it is strong, dense and clouds entire blocks with this horrid smell of cow blood.\n\n\ud83d\ude33\n\nI've always had a good sense of taste but it's like my nose has been opened to the same degree. When my housemate brings home shrimp for dinner, I can tell the moment she opens the door, forty feet away from me and I'm in a separate room and it's inside a container inside a bag. I wish I could remember that example because it's not just nasty smells. For example, the other day I smelled the literal constituents of a food thing from like six feet away, like a mineral or something (I can't remember). footage BORING. I watched it, and I couldn\u2019t care. At most it was kinda disgusting, but I'm not shocked by blood and flesh, I just noticed a lack of hygiene in the way they do their work. I still feel like I can\u2019t inconvenience myself with veganism (I live in a country where it\u2019s nothing but inconvenient) because I'm a hypocrite and feel any strong emotions only if something affects me personally.\" \n\"While I probably couldn\u2019t hurt an animal myself It\u2019s impossible for me to be bothered about someone else doing it. Shock value of something is one thing, but having any reflection because of it is another. This is exactly what I'm lacking.\" \n\"Do i just lie to myself? I'm too self-aware to do that. I don\u2019t consider myself a bad person but it almost feels like me being a \"good\" person is only for other people to see how cool I am without actually feeling like having my own morals for myself.\" \nIf you want to see the entire post it\u2019s the only one i have on this account as it\u2019s a throwaway. It\u2019s mostly just me going insane over feeling like I have no sense of morality or ethics.\n\nI\u2019ve been scrolling this and other vegan subs for hours a day trying to understand why this happens. I\u2019ve noticed this type of moral dilemma in myself only when it comes to veganism, not any of my views. Maybe i'm dense. Maybe i'm mentally incapable of caring. I've always struggled with feeling empathy. My empathy is reserved to only my close ones, and even then the empathy feels fake as i can only care on the outside and never think about it again. I know that not having an emotional reaction to something doesn\u2019t make it okay, but i truly cannot force myself to care. I do not feel love towards random animals and do not actually consider myself a good person anyway. I do not think about animals when eating meat and when I try to self-reflect i just end up rolling my eyes to myself. I've not once felt a sense of guilt.\n\nThe reason why I'm posting this is because I know there has to be someone who felt the same way. I need to know if there is some at the very least way of coping with being like this. At this point it\u2019s not even about me feeling bad with myself, but more about having to straight up say \"I don\u2019t give a fuck\" when confronted about my choices and idk, this just feels kinda stupid and cringe. It\u2019s not only about the empathetic stance, but also about everything else. The ethics, the logic etc. \"I do not care about saving lives\" \"I do not care about their suffering\" \"I do not care whether it\u2019s necessary or not\" are the horrible conclusions I had about myself, and still couldn\u2019t care. Also I will not engage in discussion with people just jumping on me for \"being a psycho\" or whatever because this will just turn into a ragebait circle. It just doesn\u2019t make sense, I don\u2019t want to sound like an edgy 13 year old saying that they don\u2019t feel emotions or empathy because that\u2019s not exactly true [\u2026] I can feel for animals like dogs or cats but nothing can\u2019t convince myself to do so for others."
\n"I watched Dominion. I only watched the more brutal parts because\u2026 it was boring. BORING. I found a documentary with graphic footage BORING. I watched it, and I couldn\u2019t care. At most it was kinda disgusting, but I'm not shocked by blood and flesh, I just noticed a lack of hygiene in the way they do their work. I still feel like I can\u2019t inconvenience myself with veganism (I live in a country where it\u2019s nothing but inconvenient) because I'm a hypocrite and feel any strong emotions only if something affects me personally."

\n"While I probably couldn\u2019t hurt an animal myself It\u2019s impossible for me to be bothered about someone else doing it. Shock value of something is one thing, but having any reflection because of it is another. This is exactly what I'm lacking."
\n"Do i just lie to myself? I'm too self-aware to do that. I don\u2019t consider myself a bad person but it almost feels like me being a "good" person is only for other people to see how cool I am without actually feeling like having my own morals for myself."
\nIf you want to see the entire post it\u2019s the only one i have on this account as it\u2019s a throwaway. It\u2019s mostly just me going insane over feeling like I have no sense of morality or ethics.\n\nI\u2019ve been scrolling this and other vegan subs for hours a day trying to understand why this happens. I\u2019ve noticed this type of moral dilemma in myself only when it comes to veganism, not any of my views. Maybe i'm dense. Maybe i'm mentally incapable of caring. I've always struggled with feeling empathy. My empathy is reserved to only my close ones, and even then the empathy feels fake as i can only care on the outside and never think about it again. I know that not having an emotional reaction to something doesn\u2019t make it okay, but i truly cannot force myself to care. I do not feel love towards random animals and do not actually consider myself a good person anyway. I do not think about animals when eating meat and when I try to self-reflect i just end up rolling my eyes to myself. I've not once felt a sense of guilt.\n\nThe reason why I'm posting this is because I know there has to be someone who felt the same way. I need to know if there is some at the very least way of coping with being like this. At this point it\u2019s not even about me feeling bad with myself, but more about having to straight up say "I don\u2019t give a fuck" when confronted about my choices and idk, this just feels kinda stupid and cringe. It\u2019s not only about the empathetic stance, but also about everything else. The ethics, the logic etc. "I do not care about saving lives" "I do not care about their suffering" "I do not care whether it\u2019s necessary or not" are the horrible conclusions I had about myself, and still couldn\u2019t care. Also I will not engage in discussion with people just jumping on me for "being a psycho" or whatever because this will just turn into a ragebait circle. \n<!-- SC_ON -->", "likes": null, "suggested_sort": null, "banned_at_utc": null, "view_count": null, "archived": false, "no_follow": true, "is_crosspostable": true, "pinned": false, "over_18": false, "all_awardings": [], "awarders": [], "media_only": false, "link_flair_template_id": "93c0fe64-689e-11e5-b5be-0e7eccdaeabd", "can_gild": false, "spoiler": false, "locked": false, "author_flair_text": null, "treatment_tags": [], "visited": false, "removed_by": null, "num_reports": null, "distinguished": null, "subreddit_id": "t5_2qhpm", "author_is_blocked": false, "mod_reason_by": null, "removal_reason": null, "link_flair_background_color": "", "id": "1wz7dt3", "is_robot_indexable": true, "report_reasons": null, "author": "CryAccomplished1440", "discussion_type": null, "num_comments": 14, "send_replies": true, "contest_mode": false, "mod_reports": [], "author_patreon_flair": false, "author_flair_text_color": null, "permalink": "/r/vegan/comments/1wz7dt3/moral_dilemma_of_not_caring_about_veganism_at_all/", "stickied": false, "url": "https://www.reddit.com/r/vegan/comments/1wz7dt3/moral_dilemma_of_not_caring_about_veganism_at_all/", "subreddit_subscribers": 1993113, "created_utc": 1791304836.0, "num_crossposts": 0, "media": null, "is_video": false}}, {"kind": "t3", "data": {"approved_at_utc": null, "subreddit": "vegan", "selftext": "Hey guys just wondering where you can get liquid omega 3? But literally for over a month the main thing I have ate every single day is Uncrustables, those little peanut butter and jelly sandwiches.\n\nAny ideas as to what I could eat? I'd have to be able to order it online and have it delivered, and I only have microwave access. I am very low income and I just have no idea where to start. Aside from the whole microwave ramen, rice and beans typa deal, which gets surprisingly expensive compared to home cooking!!\n<!-- SC_ON -->", "likes": null, "suggested_sort": null, "banned_at_utc": null, "view_count": null, "archived": false, "no_follow": false, "is_crosspostable": true, "pinned": false, "over_18": false, "all_awardings": [], "awarders": [], "media_only": false, "link_flair_template_id": "93c0fe64-689e-11e5-b5be-0e7eccdaeabd", "can_gild": false, "spoiler": false, "locked": false, "author_flair_text": null, "treatment_tags": [], "visited": false, "removed_by": null, "num_reports": null, "distinguished": null, "subreddit_id": "t5_2qhpm", "author_is_blocked": false, "mod_reason_by": null, "removal_reason": null, "link_flair_background_color": "", "id": "1wz5d5s", "is_robot_indexable": true, "report_reasons": null, "author": "impossiblyfailedboy", "discussion_type": null, "num_comments": 15, "send_replies": true, "contest_mode": false, "mod_reports": [], "author_patreon_flair": false, "author_flair_text_color": null, "permalink": "/r/vegan/comments/1wz5d5s/struggling_to_be_vegan_at_college/", "stickied": false, "url": "https://www.reddit.com/r/vegan/comments/1wz5d5s/struggling_to_be_vegan_at_college/", "subreddit_subscribers": 1993113, "created_utc": 1791300088.0, "num_crossposts": 0, "media": null, "is_video": false}}, {"kind": "t3", "data": {"approved_at_utc": null, "subreddit": "vegan", "selftext": "I'm a 20 year old university student and due to some recent turn of events I'll be financially struggling for about a year, so I'm here to hear your cheapest of the cheap meal ideas that will be just enough to survive the year. \n2. Animals feel pain just like me and you and that dog who was kicked on the street (note I didn\u2019t say they feel the same level of suffering as humans, you don\u2019t need to believe that either for this statement to still be true)
\n3. Animal agriculture causes not just a basic level of suffering but quite a substantial one (if you disagree with this please watch dominion)
\n4. You don\u2019t need animal products to live a healthy and happy life. \n\nConclusion. Be vegan. \n\nLowkey a rant because I said to someone I\u2019m close to that empathy never came naturally to me and she said that\u2019s surprising because I\u2019m vegan\u2026 which I guess triggered me because I don\u2019t think being very empathetic is a requirement to be vegan. \n<!-- SC_ON -->", "likes": null, "suggested_sort": null, "banned_at_utc": null, "view_count": null, "archived": false, "no_follow": false, "is_crosspostable": true, "pinned": false, "over_18": false, "all_awardings": [], "awarders": [], "media_only": false, "link_flair_template_id": "0d26d52c-2ef1-11e5-8c17-0ec131dbf691", "can_gild": false, "spoiler": false, "locked": false, "author_flair_text": null, "treatment_tags": [], "visited": false, "removed_by": null, "num_reports": null, "distinguished": null, "subreddit_id": "t5_2qhpm", "author_is_blocked": false, "mod_reason_by": null, "removal_reason": null, "link_flair_background_color": "", "id": "1wyaayw", "is_robot_indexable": true, "report_reasons": null, "author": "DarQTimer", "discussion_type":

\nThis is only mentioning the sewage and waste from these farms.
\nI\u2019m an ethical vegan, and what I promote is generally for the animals, but when environmental advocates bring cases to the Supreme Court, completely ignoring the impact of factory farms, I question motive and logic of it.
\nIt seems like if we close these farms and find alternative resources and land space for non-animal agriculture, it would solve many problems.
\nHow are these issues ignored by environmentalists?
